From your President Mark Van Housen...

Strange days.

Hope this finds all of you doing well.

Who would have thought that in all the years of this organization we would have not had an annual conference. I missed seeing all the fantastic artwork and the opportunity to see and visit with you.

Strange days indeed.

On the bright side it gives us a chance to "social distance" by getting out to do some plein aire or spend more time in the studio. Today we have decided to get outdoors.

We have all sorts of mediums with us, paints, sketch pads, cameras. The sky is fantastic, the trees are turning and creating their own beautiful art.

I believe that sometimes we don't realize just how fortunate we are until we get out and see the beauty that is around us.

I would encourage you all to "social distance," create and enjoy.

Looking forward to ANAC Conference 2021,

-Mark Van Housen

From your VP Christi Lewis...

Hello ANAC members! I hope this finds you in good spirits and good health. 2020 has certainly been a whirlwind of a year! I don't know about you, but when good times or adversity hits I often find myself turning to my art to express myself. I find this a great relief. Whatever your 'outlet', in good times or bad, try and make it a positive experience! Whether creating or viewing art, it does wonders for the soul!

I'm very much looking forward to the 2021 conference, and hope to see you all there!!! Until then take care and stay safe!!!

—Christi Lewis

A note from the board...

An executive committee has determined with this crazy year that ANAC dues for 2020 will apply to 2021. New members will pay dues. Temporarily, the rule for entry pieces will be no older than three years. However, if you had state-bound pieces, you will still have to pay your entry fees next year as those were never collected.

The pandemic gives us an opportunity to showcase ANAC BOS winners!

Pulled from traveling show due to rule infractions.

This incident provides the perfect opportunity to remind you all to review the rules: not shown before at ANAC, plexiglass (unless pastel), sturdy box if 3D or over 3 inches deep, entry form attached to the back. The piece from 2008 had been entered in a previous ANAC competition. The artist had forgotten about the previous entry, but others recognized it. It's easy to forget what your entries were or when you completed each piece. Take a photo on your phone of completed art and of entry forms for record keeping.

Ideas for Membership

Declining and aging membership is a big issue for all our clubs. What is your group doing to address membership retention?

- —Have you tried inviting local art teachers to meetings? Or better yet, could you volunteer to help out in their classroom?
- —Several clubs are associated with galleries, where members volunteer. You may be able to have high school students complete volunteer requirements for graduation, while mentoring them in your gallery. Exposure to the business of art will be a great education for them, and they will have ideas that may improve your gallery.
  - —You could offer full scholarships to potential members (or students) for a Saturday workshop.
  - —How are you advertising your existence? Fliers? Community calendar?
  - —Does your chamber of commerce know whom to contact?
  - —Do you use social media to communicate among members?

Email Marcia with your ideas (and photos if available!) to share with other clubs (see page 15 for contact info.

Club Spotlight—Vissi d'Arte Club—Comstock and Other Parts Sue Oiler Dowse, reporting

Vissi d'Arte translates "I lived for art" and is a heart-wrenching aria from the opera Tosca. From the area of Halsey, Dunning, Comstock, and Brewster, this group meets in local churches, homes or Halsey's Community Building the third Wednesday of every month.

Since 1997, Vissi d'Arte has worked to equip, encourage, and enlighten—our mission statement.

Equipping involves lessons from members and guest artists, public workshops, and joining ANAC. We've held art-ins for kids and adults, netting new club members. We teach and provide supplies, offering watercolor, quilling, wreath making, doodling, animation, drawing, card making, art weaving, and painting bird- and bee-houses. Color wheel is always emphasized. We love creating passion for art.

Encouraging each other might mean a "Wow! Those colors sing!" or sharing art supplies. Members donate to the frame stash so no one has an excuse for not hanging their latest masterpiece in the gallery.

We're encouraged to enter the yearly competition for entries at ANAC. For this, we pay a trained artist from outside the club to judge and offer critique. We also encourage members to enter other competitions, like the miniature show at Main Street Gallery and the Mullen Arts Center open competition. We've taken entries as far as Alliance, Valentine, and North Platte.

Student members are encouraged with lower dues and separate meetings for them during the school year. Junior members become our hands and feet and are indispensable each year at our Enlightening the public is a major goal. We were asked to display at the Loup County Fair "to teach people about art," the exhibit became a competition in 2001 with a viewer's choice award. Many came just to vote for their friend's entry. By 2007, visitors entered to scrutinize every entry. Mission accomplished! The competition (now always the last Saturday of March) moved to Comstock's Gallery: Art & Creativity Center, where the "Tides of March" caused lack of entries in 2019.

Then in March 2020, we sanitized everything and spaced people entering. We were proud to have Alan Bartels, Nebraska Life editor, judge the show, where he chose the 2020 Nebraska Life Award, which would have been given in Fremont. Della videoed his critique for Facebook.

ANAC Q&A

In the spring 1978 ANAC newsletter, then editor, LaDell Stonecipher answered questions from a club. The same questions were answered by Pat Schemmer, editor in 1995 and are still valid.

Here are the questions and Pat's responses. Updates for 2020 are in italics.

1. How do you feel ANAC serves the Clubs?

ANAC serves local clubs in many ways: The Gwen McKenzie Fellowship Award, a continuing accumulation of Nebraska Art History, a Purchase Award to MONA, internationally acclaimed artists for our conventions, a Traveling Show to bring visual art to even the remotest parts of Nebraska. Our professionally juried State Shows provide incentive for local club members to improve their art, learn about what makes a piece a winner, and learn the process of art competitions. As far as we know, we are the only state in the Union having this type of organization between small clubs. Our ANAC Facebook page is a way to share programming ideas, network with other artists, and share art and events across the state.

2. How do you feel ANAC serves all artists, not just painters?

When I (Pat) joined my local club, I first asked, are clay potters welcome, they said yes. At that time, only one or two of the other members did anything but paint. But this year, our local club has 7 in photography, 5 in sculpture, 2 in ceramics, 1 in metal, 2 in pastel, and 3 in wood carving. Efforts are made to vary the primary medium of our convention's main artist/juror, and the other Instructors at conventions provide a choice for artists in any medium. If you have a specific area of interest that hasn't been addressed, please contact a board member...or post a request on our Facebook page!

3. What is the purpose of the newsletter?

Our newsletter publishes results of the state show (now in color!), sends out applications for awards, scholarships, and registration for state convention as well as provides a vehicle for communication by artists for artists. We always will accept letters to the editor. For those online, the newsletter can be accessed on our website: nebraskartartclubs.org. Please send a private message or letter to Marcia Bauerle (see page 15) if you'd like to only receive the newsletter online through our website.

4. Does ANAC ever get grants to do projects?

ANAC has received several grants from Nebraska Arts Council (NAC) for conventions. If cost is holding your local club back from hosting consideration, or you have other uses for grant money...maybe a bus trip to an art museum, or fees for a guest instructor...check out the NAC grant opportunities at: artscouncil.nebraska.gov/grants/overview.html.

5. Besides the newsletter, how are our dues spent?

Dues paid to ANAC fund the State Exhibit, pay insurance and packaging for the Travel Show, print the newsletter with postage—which is ever rising. It also pays for the MONA Purchase Award and all other awards given at the convention. Just a note—dues in 1978 were $3 with 1,400 members, and a $50 Best of Show award. In 2020, we have $12 dues, 667 members and a $350 Best of Show award. (That's less than half as many members as 40 years ago—get out there and recruit!)

6. Is there any other thing ANAC does that we might not know about?

If you aren't involved by going to conventions, or volunteering for jobs at the state level, you are not getting the great connections, information, introductions or support to further your art career. Witnessing growth, and sharing successes with other artists keeps us from the vacuum of isolation often experienced in the arts. I can only speak from a personal stand point, that when you are a potter, 140 miles from the nearest small city (or a painter way out west like your current newsletter editor), those aspects are of vital importance.

Thanks LaDell and Pat! If any members have more questions or answers beyond what's here, please contact Marcia or ask away on Facebook.
